

SCVR 2011 Employer Recognition Awards

What the winners say about working with the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation and hiring individuals with disabilities.

"We've got some topnotch employees, some of my best employees."
-Brian Raffler (Center)

"We have a gentleman we actually hired through vocational rehab and he's been with us for over a year now. He takes care of a whole section of our business and he's phenomenal, I just can't say enough about him.."

-Pam Harrison
Cartridge Shoppe and Shipping , Paducah

"[The consumer] showed dedication and passion, exactly what we look for when we're hiring a person."

-Amy (in pink)
Olive Garden, Richmond

"We strive on empowering our employees and harvesting potential within every employee to be the best they can be because they are serving an important population, the elderly. The employees (OVR) has sent to us have been wonderful to work with. They have exceeded any expectation we would have had for any employee."

-Jenny Bartel
Hermitage Care & Rehabilitation Center, Owensboro

"We work together everyday learning about all the things we can do to recognize people's abilities and strengths to help them be successful and in turn help make Best Buy successful."

- Tami Hollar (in white)
Best Buy Inc., Shepherdsville
